

ANDER KRUPA

General Counsel & Corporate Secretary

Ander Krupa serves as the general counsel and corporate secretary for Albemarle. In this role, he oversees the company's legal, ethics, risk and compliance groups.

Krupa joined Albemarle in May of 2017 as vice president, deputy general counsel and assistant corporate secretary. He has more than 15 years of broad legal experience in the manufacturing industry and is experienced in securities law, corporate governance, commercial law, cross-border joint ventures, and mergers and acquisitions.

Prior to Albemarle, he served as assistant general counsel, governance and securities for BWX Technologies and The Babcock & Wilcox Company. In addition to his corporate experience, he was an attorney with the international law firm of Greenberg Traurig LLP in the firm's corporate and securities practice group.

Krupa received a bachelor's degree from the University of Georgia and earned his J.D. from Georgia State University College of Law.

About Albemarle

Albemarle Corporation (NYSE: ALB) leads the world in transforming essential resources into critical ingredients for mobility, energy, connectivity, and health. We partner to pioneer new ways to move, power, connect and protect with people and planet in mind. A reliable and high-quality global supply of lithium and bromine allows us to deliver advanced solutions for our customers.